Council Creates Sunset Commission —Members Named

Carmel now has a commission to administer Sunset School, as is, after July 1 and to plan future development of the facility and its site as a municipal cultural and community center.

An ordinance creating the Sunset Commission was passed by the city council in an adjourned session on April 9 with Councilman Gunnar Norberg objecting strongly. Barbara Norberg, chairman of the arts commission, also voiced objections. Both Mr. and Mrs. Norberg wanted the arts commission, instead of the newly created commission, to act for the city council in matters pertaining to the center.

Members appointed to the Sunset Commission by the Mayor with the consent of the council for two-year terms were Mrs. W. E. van Loben Sels, Peter Dyer, Wallace E. Doolittle, and Dr. James Gilman. Those appointed to one-year terms were Ted Fehring and Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher (USN Ret.). A seventh member is yet to be named.

These appointees may incur indebtedness within the limit of funds appropriated, approved and budgeted by the city council in advance. They may also rent premises at the Sunset facility which will be turned over to the city on July 1. It was purchased from the Carmel Unified School District on January 1 and the district paid, in advance, $2,000 a month rent to the city for six months.

City Clerk Hugh Bayless will act as secretary to the new commission. On April 7, the council authorized that the city clerk's office and the city hall be moved, temporarily, to Sunset School as soon after July 1 as possible.

YOUTH APPREHENDED FOR IMPERSONATING OFFICER

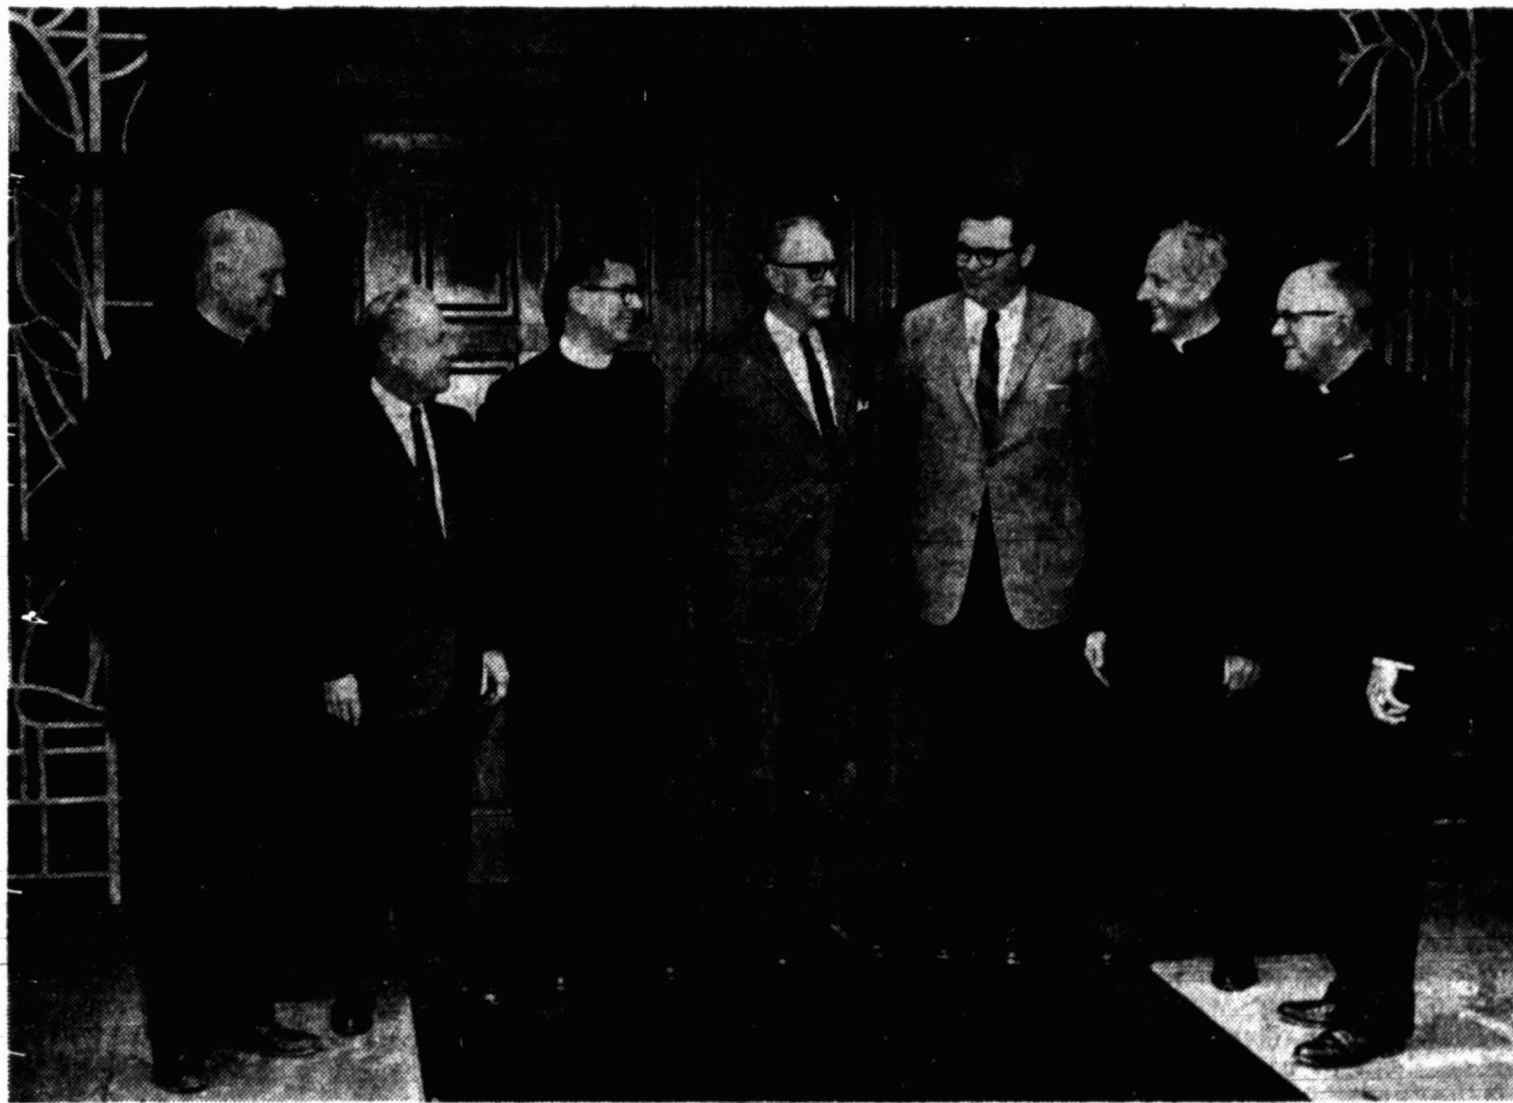

A youth was apprehended at the foot of Ocean Avenue last night for impersonating a police officer. Taken to Carmel Police Station was William James Gore, 21, of Fresno, also known as William J. McClurg.

The young man stated he had flashed a flashlight into a car occupied by a group of girls and displayed a badge so they would not think he was trying to "pick them up. He also asked to see her driver's license, one of the girls reported to Carmel police.

The Rhyming Philosopher

By Harry W. Fletcher
No. 103

Like someone said, God must love best
The common folk, He made so many.
They seem to me the wealthiest
Although they may not own a penny.
The papers seldom print their names;
No marble monolith enshrines them;
But still their daily life acclaims
For happiness no one outshines them.
For Mom bakes scrumptious apple pies,
And Dad makes garden after chores.
The kids grow up to realize
That what you earn is rightly yours.
The folks that made this country great,
And men who died in war for freedom,
Are common folk; and let me state,
In times like these, we sorely need 'em.

A "history-making" event takes place tomorrow, the Christian observance of Good Friday. Clergy from all of Carmel's congregations will gather to jointly conduct the Three Hour Service at All Saints' Episcopal Church preaching from noon until 3 p.m. on the "Seven Last Words from The Cross." Pictured above as they met last week are the Reverend Peter Farmer of All Saints' Day School, the Reverend George Hall of Carmel Presbyterian Church, the Reverend David Hill of All Saints' Church, the Reverend William Pratt, Congregational minister and administrator of the Carmel Valley Manor, the Reverend Burkett Cree of the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula, the Reverend Roger Dieudonne of the Carmel Mission Basilica, and the Reverend Lawrence Whitfield of the Church of the Wayfarer. Organist for the service will be Robert M. Forbes.

Easter Services

Tomorrow afternoon, Adoration of the Cross begins the two-hour Easter observance at 1 o'clock. A Holy Communion Service precedes the Stations of the Cross, concluding with the Removal of the Body of Christ from the Crucifix and Procession to the Mortuary Chapel and the Veneration of the Body of Christ.

On Saturday evening at 10:30 o'clock, the Easter Vigil Service starts with the Blessing of the New Fire and Paschal Candle. There will be the Blessing of the Baptismal Water and Easter Holy Water followed by Renewal of Baptismal Vows. The parish choir will sing during the Solemn Midnight Mass.

Regular masses will be celebrated on Sunday.

ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH

This evening at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a Maundy Thursday Holy Communion service, at which the Adult Choir will sing.

Presentation of Lenten Mite Box Offerings.

The Reverend David Hill will deliver the sermon for the festival Holy Communion service on Easter Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Special music at this service will include the choir and instrumentalists, under the direction of John Gosling, in the "Halleluja Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. Organist Ralph Forbes will play a Widor Toccata and Benoit's "Liturgical Suite for Easter." Gregory Sprung will perform a Purcell selection. The instrumentalists are Gregory Sprung and Stephen Felder, brass; Kathy Taugher, Roma Sprung and Edwin Ryu, strings; Sally Pastula and James Townsend, clarinets.

Bair Advises More Psychological Aid In Carmel Schools

Additional psychological services for students with emotional and behavior problems were recommended by Superintendent Medill Bair in a report presented to the board of education of the Carmel Unified School District last night. Mr. Bair's report stated that students in the Carmel system with such problems, beyond the scope of school based resources, have been encouraged to obtain help from private psychologists, psychiatrists, the Monterey County Psychiatric Clinic for Children and Youth, Family Service Agency or Fort Ord Mental Hygiene Clinic.

Cases within the school system's scope have been referred to psychologists provided by the county who spend two days a week in the Carmel schools. Mr. Bair recommended that this county service be increased to three days a week.

He also reported that cases referred to the county psychologists have resulted in conferences with teachers with recommendations offered for remediation. When possible, conferences have been held with parents alone or in company with a teacher and administrator.

He desires another day's service from the county to enable the psychologists to keep better pace with requests for service.

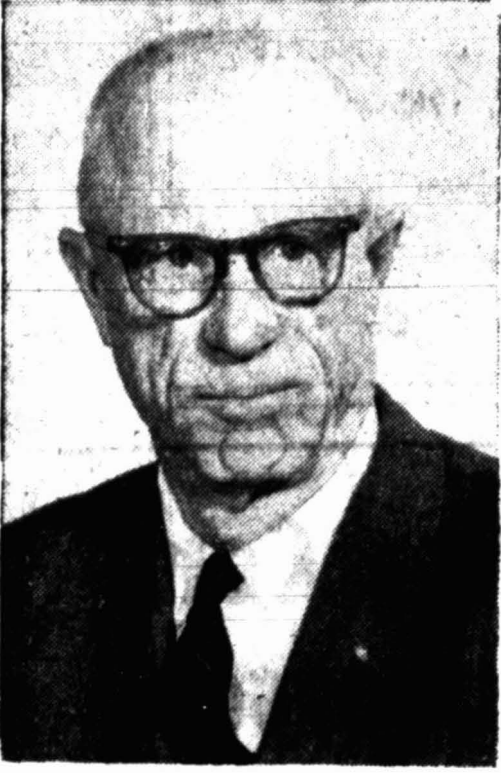

Mr. Bair also recommended that the Carmel district consider the possibility of establishing a class for educationally handicapped minors as authorized under the state education code. Such a class would remove from regular classes those students presenting the most serious educational problems and would enable a special teacher to do intensive work with them.

Another recommendation was that the district review group testing scores of elementary school children to determine if a district class for mentally retarded children is feasible.

Lastly, Mr. Bair proposed that district-wide grade level in-service meetings be considered to provide teachers with more help on assessing classroom behavior.

Out of the 2,733 students in the Carmel school system, Mr. Bair's report showed referrals to psychologists for students presenting the following problems: emotional or behavior, 39; mental ability evaluation, 19; possible retention, one; possible emotional or retardation placement, three; parental concern for under-achievement, six; visual or perceptual difficulty, two. Total referrals, 70.

"I believe in vocational training for all who want it. I recommend that all students take advantage of the facilities at MPC to learn a trade or hobby. If I am elected, I will work with the board and submit my recommendations as I see them and attend all board meetings.

"I have two children who both attended MPC. Oro, my son continued his education at San Jose State College and graduated with a master's degree and is teaching industrial arts at Palo Alto High School. My daughter, Rosita, is married to Lieutenant Commander Richard C. Winkler, a USNPGS graduate now on staff duty in Washington, D.C. My wife, Marie, is a member of the Peninsula Garden Club, the Welcome Wagon, Eastern Star, and is past president of the V.F.W. Auxiliary. Our home is in Monterey.

"I am a retired administrative U.S. chief warrant officer. I served in World War I and was a prisoner of war in Germany. In World War II, I served from 1941-1945 in Europe and took part in the Korean conflict from 1950 through 1953. Between the two wars, I was an envoy to the American Embassy in Mexico among other assignments. For the past ten years I have been a civil engineer employee assigned to the post engineers at Fort Ord. I retired on March 31, 1965.

"I was born in Oklahoma in 1898 and graduated from high school in Texas in 1917.

"In the Army, I majored in topographic survey, artillery fire control, auto maintenance, military administration and am an expert equestrian. My hobby is upholstery.

"I am a member of the V.F.W., San Jose Scottish Rite F.&A.M., a life member of the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children, the Society of American Military Engineers and am president of Monterey Bay Chapter 136 of National Sojourners."

"As a candidate for the Monterey Peninsula Junior College Board, I believe you are entitled to know why I chose to run for the office of trustee. My principle motivation is the fact that I have three children presently in high school and one will soon be entering. Second in importance is my never-ending interest in education. I have had over eight years of college training and am a firm believer in continuing education. Thirdly, I recognize that the passage of the bond issue calls for good business judgement in seeing that the money is properly used.

"Education costs money. In supplying our young people with the opportunity for learning, we must not lose sight of the responsibility of teaching them to use it wisely, and not the least of our duties is to make responsible adults out of them. As a potential trustee, I'm already looking for sources, and means of obtaining money which will be needed and needed very soon. I look at our six and a half million dollar building program in much the same way I would if it were a corporation. Did you ever see a six and a half million dollar factory built, without additional funds to keep it in operation? As a trustee, I would not like to be in the uncomfortable position of fund-cutting in departments that would be hurt by so doing. We need money in large sums, but they can no longer come from the already over-taxed property owner.

"We must bring our political leaders into the picture, because they are the governing body from whom the money will ultimately come. The federal government will play an increasing role in education, and we should be prepared to accept it if we cannot meet our needs at state level.

"I propose a county-wide junior college district for a more equitable distribution of county tax revenues. For example, if Humble Oil Co. were to obtain approval for their refinery, which I per-

"I am seeking election to the Monterey Peninsula Junior College Board of Trustees because I want to contribute to the welfare of the young people of the Peninsula.

"I am a firm believer in academic excellence whether in the humanities or vocational training. I am most interested in running for the MPC board because I will have a chance to contribute to the new campus and I feel that I can represent a great majority of our people who own, control and pay for our community college.

"I am sensitive to tax structures, advocate a frugal construction program and am, primarily, concerned with MPC trustees representing 'us the taxpayer,' also having the policies of the public conveyed to the school.

"Personally, I am a firm believer in training young people to become well adjusted young adults so they can contribute to their society when trained and educated — be the leaders of their times."

Dr. Vartabedian has practiced dentistry in Monterey for ten years. His home is in Pebble Beach. He and his wife, Melene, have two daughters, Joyce, who is a freshman at MPC, and Nancy who is a ninth grader at Carmel Junior High School.

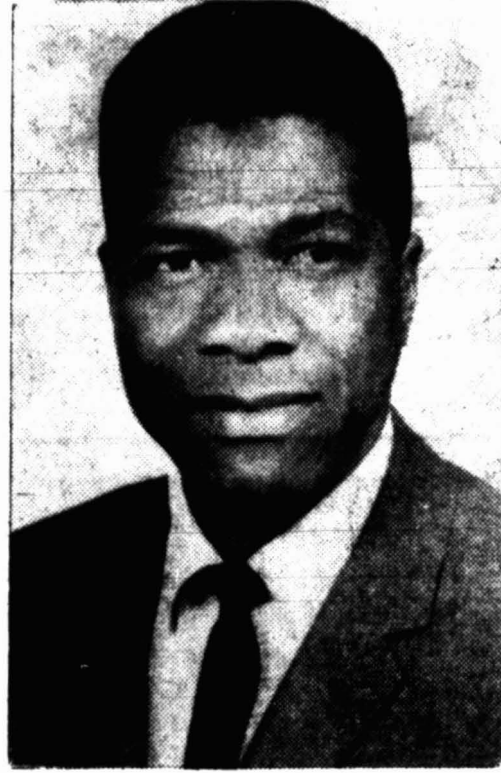

Born and raised in Chicago, Dr. Vartabedian attended Northwestern University and obtained a B.S. degree in sociology before being granted his D.D.S. degree.

Following graduation, he taught dentistry for three years at Northwestern and practiced in Chicago for six years. He served in World War II as an infantry private and after the Korean conflict as a major in the U.S. Army Dental Corps at Letterman Hospital in San Francisco and at Fort Ord.

Dr. Vartabedian is a counselor of a boys' club at MPC, serves on the staff of the Monterey County Hospital and is a director of the Monterey Kiwanis and a member of the Pacheco and Elks clubs.

own individual lives; and because I hope that my experience may be of use to the community as its representative on the board.

"I have been trained and have practised as a professional scientist; I have established and managed a successful business enterprise; I have been active as an alumnus in college admission and scholarship programs and in adult education.

"For MPC I favor: 1. Academic excellence to be achieved by high quality teaching. 2. Lively and expanded technical training for useful jobs. 3. For both groups of students, involvement in as much of the humanities as possible—the arts and sciences, and the world in which we live. 4. The college to be, even more than it is, a Peninsula focal point for cultural, academic, governmental, professional and other community concerns. 5. Plurality of views and activities, which I believe is an asset, and to encourage this I would keep the students, faculty, administration and trustees in close touch with each other.

"One of the key words of the day is communication, and we all know what tragedies occur when the interchange breaks down. We rely on the teacher to inspire the student to listen and think; I would improve this wherever possible. But in schools we are dealing with two different generations, and since the older one is always dominant, it is incumbent on us to keep our ears open, too.

"As a scientist I am keenly aware of today's need for academic excellence; as a businessman I know that every program has its cost, and all activities must be kept within realistic limits. My experience in education has shown me that it is relatively easy—temporarily at least—to inculcate facts in a student's mind. I consider it a greater challenge, and one worthy of our best efforts, to teach understanding.

"In the words of the prophet Ezekiel: 'With thy wisdom and thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches.'"

Mr. Atkinson and his wife, Dorothy, live down the coast near Bixby Creek. He is a chemical engineer retired from the photographic chemistry business he founded and now does research in this field and holds 22 patents for his scientific inventions.

He was educated at Phillips Academy, Andover, Massachusetts, and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and has a master's degree from Cal Tech. He was associated with Eastman Kodak Company for many years.

At present, Mr. Atkinson is president of the Coast Property Owners Association which he helped organize. He is also chairman of the Highlands-Bixby Creek advisory committee to the county planning commission of which he has been a member for five years.

Colorful, Elegant Cars Entered In Pebble Beach Concours D'Elegance

On Saturday, the largest number of cars ever entered in the 15-year history of the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance will be displayed on the lawn between the 18th green of the Pebble Beach Golf Links and Del Monte Lodge from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

In the display will be vintage automobiles dating back to a 1910 Mitchell Model S touring car and the latest models of European sports cars costing from $2,500 to over $6,000.

Admission to the Concours d'Elegance is a $1 donation to the ladies auxiliary of the Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula. The auxiliary will use all funds realized from the event to purchase an X-ray image amplifier which is much needed at the hospital.

Judges of the colorful and elegant vehicles entered in the 16 various classifications will be Lucius Beebe, Peter de Paolo, Denholm D. McKie, William B. David, Scott Newhall, Herman A. Richardson, Harry Hastings, Charles A. Chayne, Jennison Heaton, Alan Parker, A. Brooks Firestone, Donald Teague, Frank E. O'Neil, Carl G. Anderson, Overton A. Phillips, Jack B. Nethercutt, Strother MacMinn, Frank Mason, Jack L. Bradley, Lloyd A. Laffin, Robert A. Day and John Harvey Newbury.

Mr. Nethercutt, one of the country's outstanding collectors and restorers, in addition to being a judge, will conduct to the concours a tour of Classic Car Club members from Southern California and enter his 1915 Pierce Arrow in the competition.

Another restored vintage car which will be an entry is Mrs. John Ritchie's 1934 Brewster opera car which was custom built by hand to the order of Charles Chaplin. This car was discovered in a garage in Big Sur.

Other old cars will be a 1911 Renault roadster, a 1922 Ford "T" market delivery wagon, "twin" 1937 Cords and a Rolls-Royce 1929 Brewster Derby speedster which was Rex Bell's wedding gift to his wife, Clara Bow. These three cars belong to Alton Walker of Pebble Beach.

Also entered in the concours will be a 1935 Mercedes Benz 500 K convertible coupe, the chassis of which was purchased by the late Dr. Charles Crocker of Pebble Beach at the Paris Auto Show in 1935. He commissioned Saoutchouk to build the body which he was promised would be "snappy" in 1980. Dr. Crocker drove this car across the United States twice and ran it on the Utah salt flats. The vehicle is now owned by Mrs. Scott Newhall.

A car never before entered in competition will be in the concours. This is the 1927 Lincoln coaching brougham from the collection of William Harrah of Reno. This entry is emblematic of the days when the gentry of England and America enjoyed traveling behind prancing horses. It was designed by Judkins using English coaching yellow and black with red striping for the exterior. The interior is a reproduction of Concord coaches done in dark green imported Morocco leather with red plush trimming.

While here, the visitors will travel to San Francisco to skate at the San Francisco Skating Club at Sutro's and will also make the inevitable trip to Disneyland.

Dan is busy with rehearsals for the 1965 Mountain Play, "Rough and Ready," which will be presented atop Mount Tamalpais May 16 and 23, with many well-known Bay Area performers included in the cast of

Property On Dunes Sold For $246,000

The dune property of the late Elizabeth McClung White was sold on Friday for $246,000 to J. D. Patterson of Carmel and Patterson, California, who was the successful bidder for the 72,851 square feet of land and five structures fronting on San Antonio Street north of Ocean Avenue.

The city has expressed an interest in 31,000 square feet of the property at present undeveloped and on the city's greenbelt acquisition list. At the city council meeting last week, discussion of the White property brought forth the indication that development of the unimproved dune land might be accomplished with scenic easements advantageous to both the city and the developer and that these easements, in effect, might accomplish approximately the same results as city ownership of the land.

the 52-year-old spectacle. The annual production is put on by The Mountain Play Association of San Francisco.

Mrs. Minor In England

Mrs. Don Minor of Carmel Valley left on April 1 to spend three weeks in England visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clarke, at their home in Whitley Bay, Northumberland. A pleasant coincidence of her visit will be the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke's golden wedding anniversary.

MPVS Activities

At the general meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services at the Monterey U.S.O. on April 2, the Winnie the Pooh chapter of the Children's Home Society was presented with a check for $2,308.39, representing the March proceeds from the MPVS Thrift Shop.

Following the close of routine business, the organization discussed its Fall Project, voting to hold a fair on October 6 at the Monterey County Fairgrounds. Committees were formed to man a dozen booths for the Tombola-Mart, and members will begin work at once to ensure the success of the fund-raising project.

Cruise On Carrier

Barnet Segal and John A. Clancy of Carmel were among the civilian guests aboard the aircraft carrier USS BENNINGTON for the Secretary of the Navy's Orientation Cruise from San Diego to Pearl Harbor recently. During the five-day trip, the visitors were allowed complete freedom of the ship and were most impressed with the efficiency of each command as well as the hospitality shown them.

They enjoyed instructive lectures on each department of the 45,000-ton vessel, including the communications room with 10,500 switches, and were even allowed a turn at the ship's wheel.

Barney reports it was also interesting to watch the launching of the many different types of aircraft and the preparations employed for anti-submarine warfare.

Former Fire Chief Here

Vincent Torras, chief of the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department from 1940-1957, visited Carmel last week. He stopped here to visit his daughter, Mrs. Don Morton, and his son, Vincent Torras Jr., before flying to Alaska this week. Mrs. Torras accompanied her husband to Carmel and will go with him to Alaska. They now live in Day in Modoc County.

The Torrases will be in Juneau while they are in Alaska and visit their daughter, Willette, and her husband, Howard Lockwood, and the Lockwoods' four children. The Lockwood family has experienced the worst Alaskan winter since 1910 this year plus measles, mumps and a broken leg, Mr. Torras reported.

Speakers For Churchwomen

"The Inner-City Parish" will be the subject of a talk by the Reverend Canon Richard Lief, director of Episcopal City Mission Society in Los Angeles, at a meeting of the Churchwomen of All Saints' Episcopal Church next Thursday. The meeting in the Parish Hall will begin at 10:30 a.m. with a celebration of The Holy Communion.

Luncheon will be served at noon by the nursery mothers, and reservations may be made with Mrs. James Burum (624-3698). A baby sitter will be available during the meeting, which will adjourn at 2:15 p.m.

Michael Hohler On Leave

Airman Third Class Michael R. Hohler is at home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Hohler, before reporting to Edwards Air Force Base on Sunday for duty with an Air Force Systems Command. Michael, a Carmel High graduate, recently completed the technical training course for jet aircraft mechanics at Amarillo AFB, Texas.

The young airman is enjoying his holiday and joining his friends in their social activities, as well as catching up with his sisters and brothers, Valerie, Angie, Steven and Michael.

Chess Tournament Winners

Jordan Bow, Ted Rainer and Rookie Busic earned Sunset School a tie for second place in the Peninsula-wide Elementary Chess Tournament at Noche Buena school on April 3. The boys, members of the Sunset Chess club under the direction of Dick Lawitzke, competed in a field of 14 teams.

In addition to the overall second place for the school, Ted Rainer received a trophy for second place in the "B" division and Rookie Busic won a trophy for second in the "C" division.

Cruise Mexican Coast

One of the advantages of traveling by boat between Mazatlan and Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, is the opportunity to visit otherwise nearly inaccessible coves and sections of that tropical shoreline. The Richard Macks were lucky enough to do just this recently as guests aboard The Twendi, a 36-foot motor-sailer belonging to Frank and Connie Bishop, part-time residents of the Peninsula. The Macks drove from Carmel to Mazatlan, where they spent a week prior to joining the Bishops and got in some duck hunting, which Lynn Mack reports as fabulous.

The boat took them into numerous bays en route, making anchor at Chacala and La Penita before entering Banderas Bay and proceeding to Puerto Vallarta. After a visit there, they sailed to Yelapa, thence to the Tres Marietas, small, barren rock islands near the entrance of Banderas Bay about which there are many local legends and superstitions—water action has made weird formations of the rocks, and it is easy to see why native Indians believe a great hand molded them.

The group had hoped to continue south to Barra de Navidad but since time was short, they turned back north, stopping at Cleofa at the Tres Marias Islands before returning to Mazatlan. The penal colony on the islands, incidentally, is considered "most desirable" by convicts because they are allowed a great deal of freedom in a beautiful setting and can even have their wives with them.

Perfect weather and clear seas were encountered on the entire voyage. The fishing was great, according to Lynn, the skin diving in the warm water even better, though she admits that the presence of huge rays made her a teensy bit nervous.

School And College Board Candidates Answer Questions

Prospective trustees fielded questions from the audience on April 6 at the meeting sponsored by the Carmel unit of the League of Women Voters. The questions came after candidates for the Carmel Unified School District Board of Education, the Monterey Peninsula Junior College Board of Trustees and the Monterey County Board of Education told the 50 or so persons at Carmel Junior High School why they are seeking election on April 20.

In his answers, Ralph Atkinson, candidate for the MPC board, made it plain that he supported academic excellence, vocational training and community center activities at the college, but considered students of prime importance. Mr. Atkinson stated that trustees, not the faculty, make college policies. He advocated free speech.

Another MPC candidate, Edward V. Mitchell, answered that the greatest problems facing the college were buildings, lack of land, also parking and a few changes in the curriculum.

Dr. Joseph V. Noto, also an MPC candidate, indicated by answers that citizens could best help the college by supporting it as they did this February when they approved a $1,588,373 bond issue for new buildings. He added that the board should discover what people want and "deliver the goods." He advocated an advisory committee to aid such discovery.

Major Sherman W. Smith (USA ret.) replied to a question by saying new courses would alleviate the problem of student drop-outs at MPC. He favored an advisory committee of citizens to discover what these courses should be.

Dr. Grant A. Vartabedian, also seeking a seat on the MPC board, gave as an answer that the most important changes needed at the college were, first, to create one of the most beautiful campuses in the state; next, to upgrade the curriculum at all levels. He thought that the simplest way to improve the faculty was to hire experts.

Monterey County Board of Education candidates were asked how the county can best help individual districts. Incumbent Mrs. Doris Manning said by sanctioning county programs and considering the advice of the county advisory board, county superintendent and other members of the county school office staff. Mrs. Frances Anderson, who is challenging Mrs. Manning for a vacant seat on the county board, stated that the county could only help individual districts "as far as requested."

Carmel Unified School District candidates Dr. Robert E. Newton and Clayton B. Neill Jr., incumbents, and Dr. Friedy B. Heisler, challenger, were asked whether or not they would fight forced unification of Peninsula district by the State Board of Education.

Dr. Newton said he was strongly opposed to such a measure for the principal reason that unification subverts local control, would create a community with a larger and quite different electorate that might attract politically, rather than educationally inclined candidates.

CARMEL LITTLE LEAGUE PLAY STARTS NEXT WEEK

The opening day of the 1965 Carmel Little League baseball season will be April 24. Three full games will be played on this date at the league's field on Rio Road near Carmel Mission Basilica. Official opening ceremonies will start at 1 p.m. Play will follow.

Mr. Neill stated he was "unequivocally against" unification. He added that the Carmel district was now at an optimum size.

Dr. Heisler answered that the present is "hardly an appropriate time" to consider unification. Local districts have so many problems and should do good jobs with these, then consider valid unification points. Now there is too much confusion. Consideration of unification is premature, she thought.

Dr. Heisler was also asked for her opinion of ungraded instruction. She answered that it can be efficient if confusion created by "changing labels," and "juggling verbalizations" does not lead to more anxiety. She added that there is validity in ungraded instruction with teachers and children operating in unity with understanding.

MPC COMMITTEE PLANS PUBLIC EVENTS

Monterey Peninsula College's new Community Events Committee met for the first time last week to start work on a roster of public programs for the 1965-1966 academic year.

Representing the college administration in the group are Dr. James Rhodes, dean of instruction, and John G. Schaub, dean of the evening division. Faculty members are Rod Holmgren, Miss Angie Machado, Edward Norris and Bernard Revor. Steve Shore, Constancy Chappell and Dennis Hermanson are the student members.

Formation of the tripartite committee reflects a desire on the part of MPC to include all college groups in the selection of community programs, according to President George J. Faul.

Wildflower Show In Pacific Grove

The Fourth Annual Wildflower Show of over 300 freshly picked specimens of Monterey County flora opens tomorrow at the Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History. The specimens have been gathered from throughout Monterey County and will include rare as well as the commonly known wildflowers.

Volunteers who gathered the flowers have visited most regions of the county from the top of the Santa Lucia mountains to the coast and from southern Monterey County to the Pajaro River.

To be displayed at the same time are the original wildflower paintings of Roland Wilson from the book Point Lobos Wildflowers. Mr. Wilson will be present to autograph copies of his book tomorrow afternoon. Also being shown are original paintings by Dr. F. W. Haasis illustrating the identifying characteristics of a selection of Monterey County flora.

Special hours for the wildflower show are Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. - 10 p.m.; Sunday, 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. The museum is located at the corner of Forest and Central Avenues in Pacific Grove. Admission is free.

ALMA TRIO TO PLAY AT MPC APRIL 23

The public is invited to attend without charge. No tickets will be required for admission.

The trio consists of pianist Adolph Baller; violinist Andor Toth; and cellist Gabor Rejto. Each has an independent reputation as a concert artist, and each has been hailed by critics as brilliant on his instrument.

Citizens Committee Asks City Council To Be Bold In Shaping City's Future

The city council will meet on Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. to consider establishing policies for preserving the residential character of Carmel. The Carmel Citizens Committee requested the council to formulate such policies a year ago. So far, discussion on the request has been undertaken at three council meetings. The meeting next week will be held specially for further consideration of the formulation of the requested policies.

Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher, president of the citizens committee, will fly here from Pasadena, where he is vacationing, especially to be present at next week's council meeting.

The board of directors of the Carmel Citizens Committee has written a letter to the council urging "bold" action to shape the future of this city.

Admiral Fisher urges all other citizens who are interested in the future preservation and development of Carmel to attend the April 21 meeting and make known their desires to the city council.

Below is a letter sent by the Carmel Citizens Committee for the council to consider on Wednesday night.

Mr. Eben Whittlesey,
Chairman
Committee on Public Welfare and Public Relations

Dear Sir,

The board of directors of the CARMEL CITIZENS COMMITTEE presents the following for the earnest and favorable consideration of your committee and of the city council on April 21.

No argument is needed to emphasize that Carmel is facing a crucial period in its life. Decisions made now will shape its future, and our new council and new Mayor will be increasingly burdened with making such important decisions due to the mounting pressures of modern living and the population explosion.

The city council of Monterey recently took bold action to save the trees in the Monte Vista area from the bulldozers. We hope our other city councils and the county will be stimulated to take equally bold action in perhaps untried fields when necessary to preserve what we have and not let the Monterey Peninsula become just another subdivision or a series of "convention cities." Mr. Thomas M. Storke, for 62 years publisher of the Santa Barbara News-Press, recently said, "Monterey is California, for God's sake keep it that way!" This applies with equal force to Carmel. All good citizens and our council and planning commission should take these words to heart and act vigorously and courageously to keep us from becoming a part of the "Creeping Junkyard" described in Life's editorial of March 20, 1964.

The majority of the citizens of Carmel expect and trust you to maintain their city's character as an outstanding residential community, and to resist speculative or commercial pressures to change Carmel for the worse.

Just as you gentlemen have the responsibility of making decisions and adopting policies consistent with the desires of those who elected you, your constituents have the responsibility of making their desires known to you.

Carmel, of course, has its long standing but general policy that it shall always be a "residential" city, but we are convinced the time has come when it is necessary to establish definite and specific guide lines for carrying out that policy. Among these are the following:

1. That what may be termed the "scale" of Carmel shall be maintained.
2. That small, locally owned businesses be encouraged while the introduction of chain stores and "big business" be prevented as being undesirable and out of scale with Carmel.
3. That nothing should be done to attract more tourists. Effort should be made to improve the type of tourists.
4. That there be no more hotels, motels or liquor outlets than we now have.
5. That the gradual annexation of certain territory adjacent to Carmel be encouraged, as the residents thereof may from time to time request.
6. That a search be begun for untapped sources of city revenue for use if and when they might be needed in the future.

We are not now particularly concerned with the exact methods of accomplishing these results, and we realize that 100% attainment may not be possible in the immediate future. But we do feel strongly that these factors are vitally important for securing a good future for Carmel. They should, therefore be promptly and definitely established as our goals.

We, therefore, earnestly recommend the council prepare and publish a policy statement regarding these and any other pertinent matters. Such a statement would not only be an excellent step in the field of public relations, but would receive general public approval. The voters who elected the coun-

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS ABOUT NUCLEAR VESSELS

Last Thursday, members of the Carmel Kiwanis Club heard about "Nuclear Power for Surface Vessels" from Lieutenant Commander Charles H. Tall (USN) of the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, who described in detail the advantages of such ships over conventional ones.

By way of illustration, Commander Tall told of a round-the-world cruise of the USS LONG BEACH, the USS ENTERPRISE and the USS BAINBRIDGE under nuclear power. Averaging 22.6 knots, the ships were 57 days en-route, including maneuvers, and returned to home ports with fuel to spare and in complete readiness for further duty. Fueling, provisioning and rearming now takes place at sea, obviating the necessity of returning to port for these purposes.

Additional advantages are that space required for fuel in conventional ships may now be used for ammunition, aviation gasoline, etc., permitting complete redesign of the entire ship. Stack gases and consequent corrosion are eliminated, full power for speed is available in 20 minutes, and since missiles are most effective against fixed or slowly moving targets, nuclear vessels with their greater speed and maneuverability can avoid them more easily.

As to danger from reactors, cil to guide their community in the way they want it to go are entitled to know how it stands on such basic things. And with that knowledge there will result better communication, understanding and mutual support between the citizens and council.

We offer our wholehearted support and assistance in this and any other steps for the good of Carmel.

Very truly,
C. W. Fisher, President

Commander Tall stated that nuclear-powered ships are freer of radiation than the average city is from radioactive fallout.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CARMEL UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT:

I became a candidate for the School Board because I am concerned with:

(1) Improvements in communication between administrators, faculty, students and community, pertaining to changes in programming, teaching practices and adequately planned and scientifically checked experimentation in all areas affecting the physical, mental and social development and life of the students and faculty.

(2) The need for expansion of counseling, guidance and psychological services to help all students develop greater maturity, enabling them to meet their future more goal directed and with confidence.

(3) A revision and enrichment of the recreational, sport, social and cultural program, conducive of good personality development and a spirit of cooperation.

(4) A vitally needed expanded in-service training program for teachers, timely planned sabbatical leaves for qualifying and promising teachers, revision of work and salary schedules to permit the District to retain as well as regain a priority position in the intensified competition for qualified new teaching personnel.

(5) The effects on students' physical health by supplanting reasonably priced nutritionally balanced warm lunches for packaged costlier edibles, in a growing chain of depersonalized experiences.

(6) Striking a better balance in the distribution of available funds, with the emphasis on primary essentials affecting the well being of all, rather than luxuries of questionable value.

If you share my concern and if you place your trust in me, I shall endeavor while serving as a trustee on the School Board to use my training and my many years of experience in the field of education in a spirit of cooperation and devotion to the welfare of the students and the community. Let me thank very sincerely all of those who expressed confidence in me by promoting my candidacy, and I hope for your support at the polls on April 20.

Stellar Cast For 'The Chalk Garden' At Circle Theatre

A remarkable cast has been assembled for Enid Bagnold's suspense-filled comedy, "The Chalk Garden," which opens on April 23 at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre.

Ruth Marion McElroy will play the eccentric Mrs. St. Maugham in whose English country home the play takes place. Marcia Hovick, who herself played Mrs. St. Maugham in a 1958 production at the Circle, is now cast as the mysterious governess, Miss Madrigal, whose arrival brings about a crisis in the household.

Mason Wright returns to the Carmel stage in the role of a judge who holds the key to Miss Madrigal's past. As the irrepressible 16-year-old who pries explosive information out of the judge, Penelope Nesbitt plays her second major role at the Circle.

Frederick Rider repeats his role of Maitland, the manservant, and Margaret Phillips again plays Olivia, Mrs. St. Maugham's daughter.

After a long absence from the local stage, Cornelia Palms returns to play a rival applicant for the governess' position, a comic vignette which sets the play in motion. Helen Nessel is cast as a courteous kleptomaniac, and Barbara Kendall as a haughty nurse. "The Chalk Garden" has been entirely re-staged by visiting director Barnett Owen. Barbara Tripp has designed the decor and Billie Heaton has selected furnishings for the English 18th century mansion it represents. Costumes are under the supervision of Gertrude Chappell; lighting by Reed Putnam and sound by Charles Richmond Jr. George Thomsen and Brian Casiday are in charge of backstage preparations, assisted by Lucy Page Allen and Layne Littlepage.

A seven-week run is planned, with performances on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays at 8:30 p.m. The final showing of the Circle's current production, Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," will take place on Saturday night.

Gustave Rothe

Private services were held Monday for Gustave Henry Rothe, who died unexpectedly at his home last Thursday morning. Mr. Rothe, a resident of Carmel Point for 13 years, was 76 years old and a native of Knoxville, Tennessee.

He was a former resident of Chico and other cities in northern California where he was engaged in newspaper work for a number of years, and of Southern California, where for 27 years prior to his retirement, he was in charge of public relations for the Dairy Advisory Board in Los Angeles. He was a member of Washington Lodge No. 20, F&AM, of Sacramento, and belonged also to the Carmel Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Lydia; a brother, Judge W. E. Rothe of Chico; and a sister, Mrs.

'My Three Angels' To Be Next Offering At Studio Theatre

The Studio Theatre-Restaurant in Carmel will offer as its next presentation, "My Three Angels," by Sam and Bella Spewack. It will open April 23.

Based on the French farce, "La Cuisine Des Anges," by Albert Husson, it is a comedy which involves the antics of three convicts who become the good angels of a sadly harassed household. They are employed as roofers by a family in dire need and danger of having no roof over their heads. All three badmen have sunny natures, warm hearts, clever hands and sleepless brains. They are passionate believers in the robinhood of man.

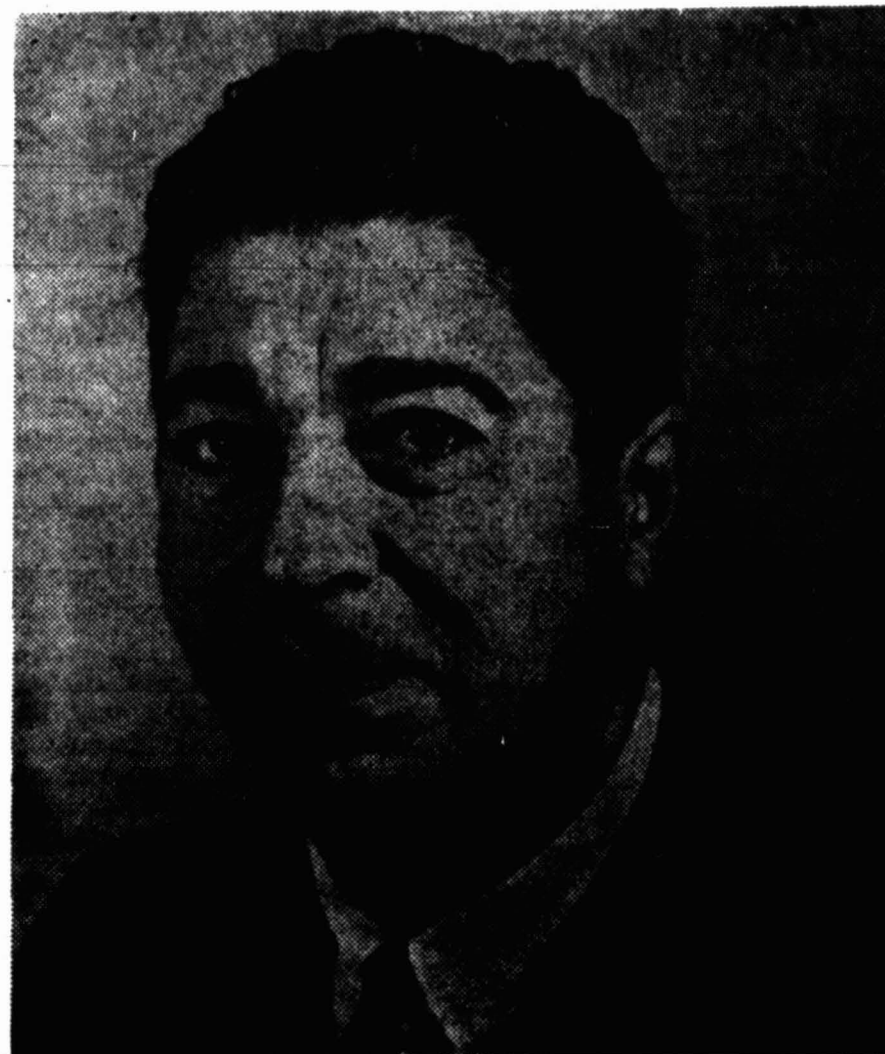

Producers Betty Hackett and Royden Martin have assigned Michael Keller to direct this play and Ruth Jordan Allan to design a set depicting a little shop and living quarters of a family household in Cayenne, French Guiana, where the temperature reaches 104 degrees on Christmas day.

"My Three Angels" will play Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays at 8:30 p.m. with dinner being served from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

F. W. Heberlein of Boise, Idaho.

The services were held at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, Pacific Grove, with Dr. George Hunter Hall of the Carmel Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial followed in El Carmelo Cemetery.

The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

AN ORDINANCE CREATING A SUNSET COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA
THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN as follows:

Section 1. The Municipal Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea is amended by the addition of a new Division, to be known as Division 7 of Part II of that code, which shall read as follows:

Members shall be appointed by the Mayor with the consent of the Council for terms of two (2) years, except that on creation of the Commission, three (3) of the initial appointments shall be for the term of one (1) year. "Section 282. The Commission herein above established shall be known as the Sunset Commission and shall have the duty, responsibility and authority to act for the City Council in matters pertaining to the Sunset Municipal Community and Cultural Center as may be hereafter established by the City Council by resolution.

"Section 283. The Sunset Commission may incur indebtedness in the name of and on behalf of the City in furtherance of its objectives, provided that the funds therefor are appropriated, approved, or budgeted by the City Council in advance, for such purpose.

Section 2. Statement of Urgency. This ordinance is hereby determined to be an urgency ordinance to take effect upon its final passage and adoption, a statement of the urgency being as follows:

The immediate passage of this ordinance is necessary for the preservation of the public health and safety and welfare in that immediate action must be taken to provide for the proper utilization of the Sunset properties after July 1, 1965, and the enactment of this ordinance in the normal manner would delay such action to an extent to make such proper utilization impossible to achieve for a much longer period.

HOT SPRINGS SEMINARS

A Pomo Indian and two graduate students in anthropology, Carlos Castaneda of UCLA and David Peri of San Francisco State College, will take part in a three-day seminar at Big Sur Hot Springs beginning tomorrow. Leader of the discussion group, research anthropologist Michael J. Harner of University of California at Berkeley, and other members of the panel will discuss the nature of certain North American Indian cultures and religious views.

Coming the weekend of May 14-16 will be a seminar entitled "The Meaning Of Sports" which will consider the psychological and sociological meanings of sports to the athlete, to the fan and to society. Arnold Beisser, M.D., psychiatrist and author of a forthcoming book on the subject of sports, and Payton Jordan, director of track at Stanford University and coach of the 1964 United States Olympic track team, will bring up for discussion such questions as: What lies behind the intense national interest in sports? What do they do for the athlete and for our society? What motivates a great athlete and a great team?

These seminars, and others which are conducted every weekend at Big Sur Hot Springs, situated 45 miles south of Carmel on Highway One, are sponsored by the Esalen Institute. The institute is governed by a three-man board—Michael Murphy, Richard A. Price and William D. Quinn—all of Big Sur, and was established in 1963 as a non-profit, educational institution and is registered under California law as a charitable trust. Carmel-by-the-Sea

Reading an article about Easter in Carmel this week and recalling the terrible days of those annual invasions makes me think of Betty Horst's remark. She looked out at car after car of wild youths and exclaimed, "I was never that young!"

Peter Kelly's folks were in looking at those crazy motorized skate boards—just looking, you understand—in a sports shop and expressed amazement that anyone would pay so much money for such a dangerous toy. "Oh sure," said the salesman, "my uncle is making a mint off these things over in San Jose."

"Really?"

"A real mint," he repeated, "he runs an ambulance service."

On my way from somewhere to somewhere I often listen to the radio and it may be my car noises but I do hear some very funny commercials. Such as this one: "Looking for a way to change the appearance of your old outfit? Visit the sows, 'ere in Carmel."

Leona Felder looked at her son's Spanish grade. "Oh, honey, another F?" "Yes, but you don't understand, Mother; this is a high F."

Reminds me of when my son brought in his first watch with the tearful complaint that it wouldn't work. "Why not?" we asked, "did you drop it?"

"Yes, but I picked it right up."

The Modern Math for Parents class that I told you about a couple of months ago came to an end and to show teacher Lucy Foster how well they'd learned her lessons, the students drew diagrams on the board. The last one had to do with the class coffee "kit-ty" and looked like this:

Cost of Coffee
Cost of
Cream & Sugar
Amount
Left Over
For You

And then they presented her with a lovely bottle of perfume.

Dorothy von Meier, chairman of of Carmel Planning Commission, sends in the following remarkably apt quotation from Dante's Letters, written in 1311.

"We marvel what sluggishness delays you so long . . . You waste the spring as well as the winter at Milan (Salinas? Carmel?) . . . Florence (Moss Landing?), (do you perchance know it not?) is the dire evil . . . This is the viper . . . from her evaporating corruption she exhales infectious smoke and thence the neighboring flocks waste away . . . Up then, thou noble child of Jesse."

City planning director Floyd Adams achieved some new initials at last week's council meeting. Mayor Blanks christened him Floyd E. B. Adams on account of he was the Easter Bunny who left those festive eggs and candy at everybody's place.

Good thing he did, too. It was probably the very thing that gave Councilman Eben Whittlesey the energy to find that "which" which should have been a "whom" in the new Sunset Committee ordinance.

I've always wanted to live in a trailer, so I really envy the almost 400 students and several teachers who will occupy the 48 specifically designed mobile units at University of California at Santa Cruz this coming year. Construction of the permanent dormitories has been unavoidably delayed and the Regents, in a burst of imaginativeness, came up with this idea as a one-year stop-gap.

Mayor Alomar of Palma, Mallorca, Carmel's sister city, is sending to Mayor Blanks a carved wooden staff of office with Palma's coat of arms on one side, Carmel's on the other. When it arrives, the Spanish consul general will come down from San Francisco to present it. It should be an impressive ceremony.

Former Mayor Whittlesey, our authority on Spain since representing us over there at the 250th anniversary of Serra's birth, says that a functionary should carry the Mayor's staff of office in front of him.

"I know who I'll appoint," Mayor Blanks said, "The little boy at Sunset who sent me a valentine."

Accidentally plopping my hand down yesterday on a tray bearing hot red, blue, green and yellow dyes—and was that a mess!—set me to wondering if the custom of Easter eggs exists in other countries. It does. Ever since the beginning of Christianity, people have been dyeing them, decorating them, hiding them, rolling them and exchanging them all over the world. And here's a word of consolation to those who, like myself, look forward (?) to a heavy egg salad post-Easter diet. Be glad you're not an Eierlesen winner. Eierlesen is the egg-rolling contest they have in Germany on Easter Monday and the champion wins 101 eggs!

FREE CHEST X-RAYS

The mobile unit of the Monterey County Health Department will be parked near the post office on Monday from 1-5 p.m. Free chest x-rays will be available during these hours. Results will be mailed on postcards after the x-ray pictures have been examined by the health department.

Sherman W. Smith

"Our college already has a strong transfer program which satisfies the requirements of the university bound student, but most of our youth are not headed for the university. The technical-vocational program for these terminal students and the special courses for adults must necessarily satisfy our own special community needs.

"My particular concern is with the technical-vocational program. I think it is only common sense to admit that a great percentage of our high school graduates will not continue on to a four-year college. I think it is also only common sense to be greatly concerned with the high dropout rates in our schools and with the unrealistic goals of other of our youths.

"These young people must be encouraged to pursue the types of technical-vocational programs that will allow them a measure of self esteem and at the same time benefit our community by a work force of well qualified people. I do not imply any criticism of what the college has already done in this field, but only insist that a great deal more must be done.

"The present board has made fine progress in solving the campus expansion problem, but I feel that any board of trustees deliberating on solutions for such educational problems as I have noted must include as broad a base of community representation as possible. As a resident of Seaside and as a Negro, I believe I can speak for segments of this community that must be heard in any discussion of our educational problems which are really community problems. My volunteer work with services and welfare organizations on this Peninsula has convinced me that no greater community need exists today than the careful planning of an educational program which will exploit to the fullest the varying talents of our youth for the benefit of both our youth and our community."

Sherman W. Smith is a retired Army major who is now a civilian aircraft dispatcher at Fort Ord.

A resident of the Peninsula since 1959, Mr. Smith was born May 8, 1920, in San Antonio, Texas, and attended schools there. He entered the Army in 1940 in San Antonio, attended Officers' Candidate School at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and was trained as a pilot.

During World War II, he was assigned to both the 92nd and 93rd all-Negro divisions, serving in the South Pacific and the Philippines. He later served in Europe and participated in the Korean conflict. His decorations include the Bronze Star with the V Device and the Purple Heart.

He completed two years of college through the Army's educational extension program.

Mr. Smith was stationed at Fort Ord when he retired from the Army in 1960. Though he worked for a period in Oakland as an air traffic controller, he has maintained his Seaside residence since that year.

Married and the father of one son, Sherman Jr., who is a student at MPC, Smith has long been active in civic affairs. He is president of the Monterey Peninsula branch of the NAACP and is vice president of the Fort Ord chapter of the Army Aviation Association of America, a member of the American Helicopter Society and a member of the executive board of the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest.

Dr. William Wenner, chairman of the citizens advisory committee to the MPC board on the recent bond election, heads the committee to elect Mr. Smith.

Rapid advances in all fields of science and human relations places a greater responsibility on future generations of our young people and much more knowledge will be required of them. This calls for emphasis on research in education, and it means we must start at the elementary grade level. We cannot wait until they enter college.

I promise you nothing but to do my best and to work with the other board members and the administrator in achieving desirable goals for our college. And I do look forward to the exciting and challenging years ahead in seeing our campus become an even greater asset to our peninsula.

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

A lover-ly week for books, it is, and don't allow spring gardening to keep you from your share of the new ones. Speaking of love, the title of Frederick Franck's new book is MY EYE IS IN LOVE. Subtitle is Revelations on the Art of Seeing by Drawing. Mr. Franck says that what started out to be a book about drawing ended by being a book about seeing. He tells the story of his own life and of how he was driven from country to country by the war. He talks of drawing, and of models, and of the vanishing beauty around us which is being driven out by the supermarket and the shopping center. He finally comes to rest from his expressive wanderings on an ocean beach where life and death are repeated and renewed by the force of the tides. The book is abundantly illustrated by drawings.

Herb Caen's SAN FRANCISCO, THE GUIDE TO THE CITY AND THE BAY AREA TODAY is a revised edition of a book published a few years ago, and a labor of love if ever there was such a thing. Informative it is, and at the same time delightful and amusing.

For people with brains and the ability to comprehend a chart, we have INVESTMENTS, AN INTRODUCTION TO ANALYSIS AND MANAGEMENT by Frederick Amling. In this case prudence demands that we stop with the simple mention of the book. It's here. Come and get it!

In her 94 years of life, Eugenie was Empress of France, an exiled queen in England, a widow, a bereaved mother, but always she was a woman of indomitable courage and great strength. Harold Kurtz tells us in his new book, THE EMPRESS EUGENIE, that her majesty kept her delight in life to the last day of her great old age. This book does much to clear away the mists of misconception which have obscured the image of Eugenie before the world.

A brief, cogent, and rather amusing book is THE VISITOR'S HISTORY OF BRITAIN written by Ronald Hamilton, who is a master at Winchester College in England. Well illustrated, it follows Britain's rulers by period from the Norman era and 1066 through the Twentieth Century to our own day and Her Majesty Elizabeth II. The author says he wrote the book not to instruct but to remind.

A history of the Sahara Desert, the Sea of Sand, is what James Welland has written and in doing so has done for the desert what Alan Moorehead did for the Nile River in his two books. This one is called THE GREAT SAHARA. There are maps on the end papers and many photographs which give the reader a sense of the vast loneliness of the place—its frightening emptiness. This is the Sahara as it was and as it is.

Finally, let us not leave this piece without mentioning the new book by "The Master," Jake Ehrlich himself, with the title A LIFE IN MY HANDS. In this book he tells about his many famous legal battles, but he also tells about himself for this is his autobiography. There will surely be a long waiting list for this one. Get in early.

Carmel Foundation Program

Members and guests of the Carmel Foundation are invited to a musical program at the Town House on Wednesday at 3 p.m.

Carl Bensberg will sing a group of songs by Schubert, Handel, American songs by Strickland and spirituals. Mrs. Mae Marshall will accompany Mr. Bensberg on the piano.

Tea will be served by the Carmel Girl Scouts at 4 p.m.

Libraries To Honor Local Authors At Luncheon On May 1

On May 1 at noon, the libraries of this area will hold an Author's Luncheon in celebration of National Library Week. The luncheon is open to all interested persons but is especially aimed at children and young people. The authors who will attend as honored guests are creators of books for children. The authors, in alphabetical order, are Betty Antoncich, Harry Behn, Helen Bratton, Vivian Breck, Michael Chester, Beverly Cleary, Doris Gates, Eula Long, Hendry Peart, Leo Politi, Lester Rowntree, Maxine Shore, and Evelyn Sickles.

Luncheon tickets are on sale at every library in the area and are priced at $2.25 each. The affair will be held in the Exhibition Hall at the Monterey County Fairgrounds and the speaker will be Leo Politi, who is famous for the books which he both writes and illustrates. He chose a Monterey locale for his A BOAT FOR PEPPE, and his book THE MISSION BELL is about Father Serra.

Books by all the authors at the luncheon will be available for purchase and it is expected that the writers will be willing to autograph them for people who request it. Tickets should be purchased before April 24 to be assured of a place at the luncheon. Interested persons who cannot attend the luncheon itself are invited to come in later to see and meet the authors or to purchase books if desired.

LOFTON SHOW

A one-man show of oils, watercolors and drawings by Richard Lofton will open Sunday in the Carmel Craft Studios on San Carlos Street south of Ocean Avenue and remain on exhibition daily, including Sundays, from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. through May 18.

The show will be a survey of the work of this outstanding Carmel artist during the past ten years. Included will be pictures painted on his recent trip to tropical Mexico, also paintings of the High Sierra country in winter, desert scenes and portraits.

In addition to the work which will be exhibited on the walls of the enlarged Craft Studios' gallery, folios of Mr. Lofton's drawings will be shown, Fred Klepich, who is arranging the show, announces.

An invitational preview of the Lofton show will be held on Saturday from 6-8 p.m.

Richard Lofton was born in Charleston County, South Carolina, where his French Huguenot ancestors settled in 1680. When he was 18 years old he won first prize for the portrait of his mother he entered in the professional painting class of the South Carolina State Fair. He graduated from the Citadel, as had his father and grandfather, then attended classes at the National Academy of Design in New York City. He was director of the Community Art School in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, until World War II when he was commissioned as a first lieutenant in the coast artillery. He completed his tour of active duty as a captain at Fort Ord and decided to live and paint in Carmel.

Richard Lofton has had one-man shows at the Galerie de Tours, Carmel Art Association, University of South Carolina, the Lucien Labaudt Galleries and the M. H. de Young Museum in San Francisco, Santa Barbara Museum and Hartnell College, to name a few.

His work is represented in the permanent collections of the San Francisco Museum of Art, Santa Barbara Museum, Cleveland Museum in Ohio, International Business Machines collection, Monterey Public Library, and numerous private collections.

Kenneth S. Walker, coordinating chairman of the Beacon House Benefit Art Auction, announces that Charles Thomas of Carmel Highlands will be auctioneer for the affair.

The art auction steering committee met recently to discuss its plans for the event which will be held May 16 in the Mark Thomas Inn.

Appointments at the meeting were Mrs. Charles Cunningham, chairman of hostesses; and Owen Patrick, chairman of photography.

Today, at the Monterey Peninsula Chapter of the American Federation of Arts Gallery, an exhibition of drawings and paintings by a West Coast artist, Margaret Peterson, opened.

The San Francisco Museum of Art, the Oakland Art Museum, the University of California and eight private collectors were instrumental in making this exhibition available.

Miss Peterson was a member of the faculty of the art department at the University of California, Berkeley, from 1928 to 1950 and she became one of California's most influential teachers. She studied and carried on research in Europe, Mexico, Costa Rica and the Canadian Northwest. Her paintings are included in many museum collections throughout the United States and Canada and an important group of West Coast artists owe much to her example as artist and teacher.

The A.F.A. Gallery on Lincoln between Ocean and Seventh, is open weekdays from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. and Saturdays from 2-5 p.m.

S. C. Yuan, of Carmel, has submitted a painting to the third annual Benedictine Art Awards. The work will vie for the competition's three cash prizes—a $1,000 first prize, a $750 second prize and a $500 third prize—which will be awarded in May. The American Federation of Arts are official judges of the art awards.

Paintings will be chosen from those of 35 finalists, all of whose work will be exhibited in May at the Silbert Scholarship Gallery, Standard Financial Corporation, New York City.

San Francisco's new Ghirardelli Square and the M. H. DeYoung Memorial Museum will be the destinations of a chartered bus tour on April 21 sponsored by the Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts.

Among exhibitions to be visited is "Impressionism in America," a collection of works by American artists of the 19th century working in the Impressionistic style. It contains 72 paintings by Cassatt, Twachtman, Childe Hassam, Prendergast and others augmented by a collection of prints and photographs. This work was loaned by museums, galleries and private collectors all over the country and was organized by the Junior League of Albuquerque, New Mexico, in collaboration with the University of New Mexico Art Gallery.

Paintings, drawings, sculpture and ceramics by Roger Hope are being shown at Clown Alley Art Studio on San Carlos Street north of Seventh Avenue. The work of Don McGilvra, Edith Dinkin, Jim Bertram, Don Bloom and Ben and Carolyn Bishop is also being exhibited in this gallery which is upstairs in Vandervort Court.

Taylor and Burton Film Showing To Benefit Symphony

Months of effort and planning paid off for the Monterey County Symphony Association this week when it received confirmation for an advance benefit showing of "Flight of the Sandpiper" on June 4.

The picture, which was filmed in part on the coast south of Carmel and at Big Sur last fall, stars Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton and is scheduled for general release in late June.

The film presentation, plus a champagne supper and discotheque party, will take place at the Golden Bough Cinema and Golden Bough Circle Theatre and will benefit the Symphony Sustaining Fund. Patron and sponsor donations to the fund, $25 and $50 each, will serve as admission to the three-in-one event and reservations will be made in order of receipt. Mrs. Richard Osborne and Mrs. Frank G. Ringland are in charge of party arrangements.

Cecil H. Barker, a member of the symphony's board of directors, is chairman for the affair which is the association's first attempt at benefit fund raising. According to Mr. Barker, the organization's expanding services and rising costs have made an annual association fund raising activity a necessity. In conjunction with the benefit, a committee to obtain guarantor donations from the business community has been set up under the direction of Charles Simpson.

Other committees are now being formed and chairmen selected to assure countywide participation in the success of the project.

Wed In New Chapel

In the first wedding ceremony performed in the new Erdman Memorial Chapel at Robert Louis Stevenson School, Bonnie Mary Bein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Bein of Pebble Beach, became the bride of Richard James Robbins of Seattle. The Reverend C. E. Wilson read the service for the high noon rites on Sunday.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Anne Dull of Seattle and William R. Redman, also of Seattle, served as best man.

Following the wedding, a reception for family members and close friends was held at Del Monte Lodge.

The new Mrs. Robbins is the sister of David Bein of Arcata and the niece of Miss Ellen Johnson of San Francisco, who attended the wedding, as did Bonnie's cousins, Mrs. John Shirley Ward and Miss Reavis Hughes of Pasadena. A graduate of the University of California, she has been teaching in Bellevue, Washington, and is a member of the Junior Club of Seattle.

Mr. Robbins, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James S. Robbins, is the brother of Mrs. Jon Lindbergh of Seattle and Mrs. Wayne Vogel of Omaha who were here for the ceremony, as were his grandmother and aunt, Mrs. P. A. Robbins and Miss Ruth Robbins of Chicago, also another aunt, Miss Jane Robbins of Denver.

A graduate of Principia in St. Louis and Michigan Technological University, he is president of James S. Robbins and Associates, Inc., and a member of the American Institute of Mining Engineers. He is also a member of the Rainier Club, the Junior Club and the Metropolitan Round Table of Seattle.

Following a honeymoon in Baja, California, the young couple will make their home in Seattle.

Wilson, book chairman, will present Miss Margaret Thompson, librarian at Monterey Peninsula College, whose subject will be "Love of Hawaii." THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONS TO OUR

DRAMATIS PERSONAE:

"HANK" ADAMS (who is really Emory S. Adams, Jr., with a "Col." in front of his name, and who knows every square inch of the coastlands between Carmel and Morro Bay, has joined us to deal with general real estate but specializing in this exciting and difficult-to-know Coast. Coming to us by way of real estate experience in Monterey, he and his nice wife Margery and his son Douglas, a sophomore at Carmel High, live in Carmel and love it. Hank's a little tall for the doorways of our office, but his stature is exactly right for the coast lands he loves, and we're pleased to have his specialty and his experience to round out our REBTS staff.

FLORENCE L. HARPER, an already favorite of all of you for many years as you've come to know her through her local hotel management and her years as a competent and successful Carmel realtor. Her long-time knowledge of Carmel, and her complete competence in handling home sales, are equalled only by her very considerable personal charm. With admiration, respect and a knock on wood for our great good fortune we commend to you our newest associate.

AND AS A MATTER OF FACT, I'm so proud of my staff (see also last week's Pine Cone) that I think I'll just go right out on a limb and say I have the finest associates in Carmel and forget about becoming modest! Why not come in and see if I'm right?

1.—One of Pacific Grove's utterly delightful older Victorian homes. Handsome grand piano and Oriental rugs seem to be "companion pieces" with the unique Franklin stove located in the separate dining room. A view of the ageless Pacific Ocean which is ever new and changing day by day. For the practical minded, it might be mentioned that there are two bedrooms and one bath in the main house with another bedroom and bath in the guest house. Both open on a spacious secluded garden and patio. A perfect home for two or three adults while the owners spend a year or slightly more in Europe. $250 per month includes the gardener and water.

2.—IN PEBBLE BEACH an ultra-modern two bedroom, two bath almost new home opening directly on the M.P.C.C. Fairways and with an unobstructed view of one of the most spectacular shore-lines in the entire Forest. ## Easter Church Services Poor Attendance Hampers Work Of Arts Commission small children will be provided at all three services. At the usual 9:30 Church School hour, however, classes for the three-year-old children and the kindergartners will be the only ones held. All other classes will be adjourned in order that children may accompany parents to church.

COMMUNITY CHURCH OF THE MONTEREY PENINSULA

An Easter Sunrise Service, sponsored by the Ikthys Youth Fellowship of the Community Church will be open to all. Young people from other churches are especially invited guests. This service will be held at the Cross on the hill near the mouth of the Carmel River at 5:15 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Easter Service of the church, which holds services in River School, will be held at 11 o'clock in the morning. Title of the sermon by the Reverend Burkert Cree is "East of Easter." The choir, under the direction of John W. Farr, will sing "Rejoice and Give Thanks" by Williams and "Jesus Christ is Risen Today" by Bach-Whitehead. Special Easter music, including Slater's "Easter Alleluia" has been chosen by the church organist, Mr. J. W. Larson.

Adult and children's classes will not meet for this one day, but child care will be available for children through fourth grade age.

CHURCH IN THE ROUND

The Church in the Round invites its members, their families and friends to an informal Easter Breakfast at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the Carmel American Legion Hall. Mrs. Peter Wangoe, breakfast chairman, will provide a delicious menu of fruit, sweet rolls and coffee.

The Reverend Karel Vitt will be the speaker at the regular service at 11:02 a.m. Sitter service will be available.

Carmel arts commissioners, yesterday afternoon, concerned themselves with getting the city's open-air Forest Theater into condition for the first free Sunday afternoon program on May 30. On this date, sponsored by the commission, members of the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra directed by John Gosling will give a "pops-type" concert.

Chairman Barbara Norberg, faced with an attendance of only four of the seven members of the commission, stated,

"If the arts commission is to survive and achieve we will have to have better attendance."

She proposed that the commission establish regulations to ensure regular attendance and submit these to the city council for approval but no decision on this matter was made.

A better turnout of commissioners is needed to formulate plans for next year, the 50th anniversary of the city's incorporation, she indicated.

The prospective sale of arts commission stickers to raise money for commemorative events was discussed yesterday and referred to the city attorney for an opinion on whether or not the commission can properly engage in fund-raising activities.

It was decided that the floor of the outdoor stage of the Forest Theater will be put into condition as soon as possible; dehumidifiers purchased for the indoor theatre under the stage; and new stage lighting equipment, spots and screens obtained. Money for these improvements was included by the city council in the 1964-65 municipal budget.

The arts commission adjourned yesterday until April 26 at 5 p.m. Plans for activities next year will be made at this meeting.

For the Easter morning service at 11 o'clock, Dr. Whitehead will have as his theme "What Does It Mean To You?"
